

London, 26/11/2010

Public Event and Demonstration Workshop

BBC R&D South Lab, Centre House
56 Wood Lane London W12 7SB, UK

Programme of the day

- 09:45 Arrivals
- 10:00: 10:15 Introductions
 - Welcome - John Zubrzycki for BBC R&D
 - Welcome - Philippe Poncin, INA for PrestoPRIME
- 10:15-10:30 How do AV files really get saved?
 - By taking care of.... - Laurent Boch, RAI
- 10:30-11:30 Presentations of technologies :
 - preservation strategy and planning tools - Richard Wright, BBC
 - control of storage and services, quality analysis - Stephen Phillips, IT Innovation
 - metadata handling: mapping, rights, provenance - Werner Bailer, Joanneum Research
 - organisation of digital preservation framework - Francesco Gallo, Eurix
- 11:30-13:00 Demonstrations (individual breaks inside)
 - Cost Estimation Tools - Matthew Addis and Mariusz Jacyno, IT Innovation
 - Policy based storage management - Stephen Phillips, IT Innovation
 - Metadata Mapping and Validation services - Werner Bailer, Joanneum Research
 - Video Quality Assessment - Peter Schallauer, Joanneum Research
 - Collecting and integrating user-generated metadata - Michiel Hildebrand, VUA
 - Rights Ontology vs Contracts - Laurent Boch, RAI and Francesco Gallo, Eurix
 - Rosetta (including MXF MD extractor plugged-in) - Nir Kashi, ExLibris
- 13:00-14:00 Lunch break;
- 14:00-14:30 Feedbacks from delegates
 - Animated by Richard Wright, BBC
- 14:30-14:45 - the PrestoCentre : Competence Centre on Digital Preservation and Migration
 - Progress of the Competence Centre - Marius Snyders, B&G
- 14:45-15:00 Break
- 15:00-16:00 Panel : A reality check - Chair: Matthew Addis, IT Innovation
 - Standard IT processes that have been in use for decades - Matthew Addis, IT Innovation
 - Good Storage Management - Robert-Jan Oversee, Atempo
 - Special technology just for audiovisual files - Rajitha Weerakkody, BBC, UK Avatar-m project
- 16:00 Outlook to future results

If not done, please register now – we only have 60 places. Send your name, affiliation and contact details to:

Ruth Power ruth.power@bbc.co.uk